CORN AND OATS OFF IN PRICE

OMAHA, Jan. 14, 1915.

Foreigners again were on the buying side of wheat. From the manner in which they made purchases at Buifalo, Chicago, the seaboard and in the southwest, there is an urgency in the consumptive demand. Supplies of wheat abroad continue to decrease. This is the case especially in Great Britain. Loon don was the leading buyer in the United States yesterday. Exporters had as competitors many of the large millers of the country. There was an improved demand for flour and wheat is scarce in all positions.

The probabard reported as much as 2,000,000 bushels of wheat provisions. For a while it seemed to be a bargain-counter day as to pork, lard Grain prices furnished by Logan & Bryan, 25 South Stxteenth Street;

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Wheat jumped to-day to a point virtually 10 cents a bushel higher than on Monday last, when speculators were tumbling over each other to sell out because of wild talk that the Turks were yielding control of the Dardanelles and that hostilities by Italy implied a speedy end of the war.

At the summit May wheat brought today $1.43%, a price not equalled before in years. The chief reason was that exporters wanted more wheat than they could buy in all American markets. Feeling was much unsettled at the close, which varied from the same as last night to 262% c above. Corn linished unchanged to 1-ise up, oats at a gain of it to %c, and provisions down 5c to 12c. European needs became so acute today that, finding no wheat available for ocean shipment was left in Chicago, exporters bought thousands of barrels of flour here, although bakeries have been threatening to stop for lack of supplies.
